UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ELIZABETH HENDERSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

BENICORP INSURANCE COMPANY, an Indiana Corporation,

Defendant.

2:05-cv-00716-RCJ-GWF

ORDER

Before the Court is the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge (#54) ("Recommendation") entered on December 15, 2010, in which the Magistrate Judge recommends that this Court dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint without prejudice. No objection to the Report and Recommendation has been filed.

I. Discussion

This Court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Further, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), if a party makes a timely objection to the magistrate judge's recommendation, then this Court is required to "make a de novo determination of those portions of the [report and recommendation] to which objection is made."¹ Nevertheless, the statute does not "require[] some lesser review by [this Court] when no objections are filed." Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149–50 (1985). Instead, under the statute, this Court is not required to conduct "any

1 review at all . . . of any issue that is not the subject of an objection." Id. at 149. Similarly, the
2 Ninth Circuit has recognized that a district court is not required to review a magistrate judge's
3 report and recommendation where no objections have been filed. See United States v. Reyna-
4 Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (disregarding the standard of review employed by the 5 district court when reviewing a report and recommendation to which no objections were made);
6 see also Schmidt v. Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d 1219, 1226 (D. Ariz. 2003) (reading the Ninth
7 Circuit's decision in Reyna-Tapia as adopting the view that district courts are not required to 8 review "any issue that is not the subject of an objection."). Thus, if there is no objection to a 9 magistrate judge's recommendation, then this Court may accept the recommendation without 10 review. See e.g., Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d at 1226 (accepting, without review, a magistrate 11 judge's recommendation to which no objection was filed).

12 In this case, there have been no objections filed to the Magistrate Judge's Report and 13 Recommendation. Although no objection was filed, this Court has reviewed the Report and 14 Recommendation (#54) and accepts it. Accordingly,

15 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff Elizabeth Henderson's Complaint is dismissed
16 without prejudice.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.

18 DATED: This 14th day of January, 2011.
